WILLIAM WOLF, Instructor in Gymnastics.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

DR. A. GUENTZ, Principal.

JOHN LANE, and several of the aforementioned Professors Assistants.

The Academical Course will, in every respect, be as comprehensive and thorough as any of our eastern universities.

A superior Observatory, with a splendid and powerful Telescope, a Meridional, Transit, and Chemical Apparatus, of the finest order; a Library of more than five thousand volumes, and great variety of other valuable Instruments, afford to the student uncommon advantages.

This College is under the strictest and immediate supervision of a Thorough Academical Education. A regular School for the use of Civil Engineers, and professionals in Mechanical pursuits.

The Modern Languages are taught not only by the text-book, but also by practice.

SEPARATE ROOMS are provided for the ENGLISH, FRENCH, AND GERMAN TABLE, THE FRENCH AT THE FRENCH TABLE, SERVED BY GERMANS AND FRANCE PRESSING, AND NATIVE WAITERS ATTEND NO. BY this arrangement the Student, in a very short time, acquires a power of speaking the Foreign languages with fluency.

The Preparatory School is under the immediate charge of Dr. GUENTZ and [illegible]. All perfectly board with and live in Dr. Guentz's own house.

The ensuing session will commence on Monday, the 6th day of September next.

For further particulars apply to Dr. A. GUENTZ, President of Shelby College, Shelbyville, Ky.

DR. A. J. VANDERSLICE,

Late Professor of the Medical College of the Mississippi Valley, and Practical Physician for 20 years past, BELIEVES he can benefit his friends and the public generally, that he still continues to devote a large share of his time to the alleviation of human suffering, by curing the following diseases: Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Piles, Dropsy, Tic, Neuralgia, Spinal Affections, Fistulæ, Gout, Rheumatism, Scrofula, White Swellings, Diseases of the Skin, Nervous Affections, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, &c., &c.

The success which Dr. V. has met with by inspection of the most distinguished cases of diseases, has been astonishing—causing him to be considered one of the most scientific practitioners in the country. As a proof of the Doctor's merits untried, he will undertake the cure of all patients without charge, excepting the cost of the medicine, requiring no fee until after the restoration of their health, and the full satisfaction of the patient's mind of the benefit conferred.—That is the principle upon which Dr. Vanderslice begs to operate in all cases with his practice.

Persons afflicted with Tumors, &c., &c., can have them entirely removed and permanently cured without pain. Thousands of persons have been cured by Dr. V., and can bear testimony to his wonderful success.

Females suffering with irregularities, nervousness, debility, &c., can be permanently cured by the treatment of Dr. Vanderslice. Ladies, let no scruples or false delicacy hinder you from applying to the proper person, when you can be speedily restored to health.

Diseases of a peculiar character are guaranteed to be removed in a few days, radically, without offensive or deleterious medicine. Dr. V. being eminently successful in this branch of practice, patients would save much time and money, to say nothing of anxiety of mind, by giving him an early call. He warrants to all, no matter how severe and long standing it may have been, a thorough cure, or no pay. Invalids of your true interest is to apply to Dr. V. at once, who has the proper medicines to meet all cases.

Dr Vanderslice begs leave to say further, that he has with him remedies prepared in a scientific and skilful manner under his own eye, to cure each and all diseases in which his attention has been so long directed, with full directions how to use them; therefore invalids from any section of the country, by addressing a letter, post paid, to the doctor, stating symptoms, &c., and enclosing a fee, can have advice and medicine sent them.

CERTIFICATES OF CURES PERFORMED BY DR. A. J. VANDERSLICE.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17, 1849.

THIS is to certify that I have long been afflicted with the Dropsy, from which I have suffered much bodily as well as mental pain. I have tried many remedies with scarcely any benefit, and applied to several eminent physicians, who promised a speedy cure; but, unfortunately, their promises were never realized. I was introduced to try Dr. A. J. VANDERSLICE, who soon, by his course of treatment, restored me to health. I am induced to make this public, in hopes that others unfortunate may consult him with like success.

je20 d&wtf JOHN JOHNSON, Jr.

This is to certify that Dr. A. J. VANDERSLICE attended my mother, Frances May, in the month of January last, for a severe attack of Rheumatism, and, after the use of one bottle of Relsam that he gave her, she is at present, and has been since its use, entirely well.

BENNETT'S ESSENCE OF GINGER.

(Or EXTRA STRENGTH).

PREPARED from the pure African Ginger, and warranted to be a stronger preparation of the kind than any other in use.

Ginger is acknowledged to be one of the best stimulants in the Materia Medica, and is unequaled as a Carminative, Stomachic and Tonic; hence its great use in Indigestion, Flatulence, Acidity of the Stomach, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, &c. It effects the human system very gratefully, imparting a pleasant and healthful sensation to the stomach and internal organs.—It should have a place in every family, as it is always a simple and efficacious in its operation, relieving suddenly and innocently without producing any injurious effects or consequences, which cannot be said of many medicines.

At this season of the year, when attacks of the Diarrhœa and Bowel Complaint are so prevalent, this article can be safely used. It prevents as well as cures diseases of this kind.

To travelers and those exposed to changes of climate and water, this remedy is especially recommended. It counteracts to a great extent the injurious effects of bad water, as well as undue exposure to heat and dampness. A few doses of this will prevent any discomforts of this character, avert lingering illness and perhaps death.

Much difference exists in the quality of the root obtained from different parts of the world, some possessing it containing comparatively but little strength. The Jamaica Ginger is found to possess greater strength than any other variety. This is the article we use in this preparation.

Put up in 4 oz. bottles. Price 25 cts. each.

SUPERIOR PENMANSHIP.

WE notice with pleasure the arrival of Messrs. WILLIAM & CHARLES RARY, penmen and accountants in Writing, Arithmetic, Book-Keeping, English Grammar, Geometry, Logic, Algebra, Mensuration, Surveying, &c., has been very great in New York and other Eastern cities. These gentlemen have most satisfactorily realized the high esteem of the public—for the testimonials they bring with them, show that in Ireland, their native country, as well as in this country of their adoption, they have been regarded by highest classes of ladies and gentlemen, among whom they have moved. But we can with truth say that we have never seen more beautiful specimens of Penmanship; and, besides possessing this in perfection himself, Mr. Barry has the faculty of communicating it to others. We can therefore most strongly recommend him to those ladies and gentlemen of our city who wish to improve their handwriting. I must candidly acknowledge that Mr. Barry has no rival in this country as Penman, Grammarian, Book-Keeper, and teacher of Mental Calculations; most all Commercial calculations can be performed by the application of one figure only. Mr. Barry will reform the most imperfect writing, and fix any lady's or gentleman's hand in a style of uniformity, neatness, and elegance, in one month; emboldened by large and increasing patronage, the high Commends lons for his labor, and extraordinary success, he has added one thousand most distinguished ladies and gentleman at Boarding Schools, Academies, Colleges, and private families.

Mr. Barry will endeavor to merit the esteem of the public, and hopes that the ladies and gentlemen of this city will not be more pleased by his masterly method of teaching, than by his kind and most conciliatory manner to his pupils.

BOOK-KEEPING BY SINGLE AND DOUBLE ENTRY.—This indispensable branch of mercantile education is taught after the most approved and practical manner. The various transactions of business are introduced and elucidated, sets of books are regularly opened and closed, and clear insight of commercial affairs is given the pupil. The number of lessons is not limited—the pupil is permitted to attend till perfect.

The Academy is open day and evening. First class for ladies, from 7 till 9 in the morning, and second class, for gentlemen, from 9 till 12, and from 12 till 4; and 4 till 6 in the afternoon for ladies' evening class, and from 6 till 9 for gentlemen's evening school.

Teachers who want improvement would do well to attend Mr. Barry's Academy.

Mr. Barry most respectfully acquaints the ladies and gentlemen of this city that he will give instructions in Mental Calculations, Grammar, Geography, Globes, Astronomy and Elocution.

"Mr. Barry, teacher of Penmanship, whose rooms are in the Telegraph Buildings, has exhibited to us some exquisitely beautiful specimens of Writing, as taught by him in a series of lessons. Mr. B. guarantees to impart to his pupils such instructions as will enable them in a very short time to acquire a perfect style of mercantile Penmanship. He bears with him the highest testimonials of his success. Young gentlemen who are engaged in mercantile pursuits cannot better dispose of their time than by placing themselves at his school."

☞Mr. Barry has fitted up a beautiful front room for ladies, not inferior to any in the city, and a separate room for gentlemen, and means to give general satisfaction to the public. jy27 d3m

JEFFERSON COUNTY KENTUCKY LAND FOR SALE

131½ ACRES RICH JEFFERSON COUNTY Lime stone Land, 13½ miles from Louisville, and the due distance from Taylorsville and Shelbyville. The Taylorsville and Louisville Turnpike passes through it, while Floyd Fork, forming a beautiful crescent, bounds it on the North and South. It lies so near to Fisherville, a neat and growing village, as to supply water from its never-failing spring to the villagers.

In the village is a large merchant, corn and saw mill, large corn mill and distillery, two retail stores, meat, and 1817 grocery shops, a fine physician, a workmanlike house, a Mason's Lodge, a Temperance hall, a post-office, supplied by tri-weekly 4-horse mail coaches, and a business done employing a capital of $50,000 annually. The people are intelligent, enterprising, thrifty, and kind—the country is improving and healthy.

On the land is a comfortable dwelling house, stable, and other buildings, a stone spring house with thirty steps of the dwelling, covering a never-failing spring of pure water, as fine as any in the country, and offering from luxuriant clover fields, the richest and coolest milk and butter in the world.

As a summer residence for a city gentleman, it is unsurpassed with a clear road upon a smooth pike, a drive of 1½ hours brings him to the place. The land now rents for $3 per acre, and for gardening purposes, after affording the city owner, the pleasure of family retirement and rural enjoyment in the hot summer months, the rent will pay from 6 to 10 per cent—better and more satisfactory than any stock investment for the capitalist, and a sure business for a managing farmer.

I am authorized to make the time long, and terms liberal to the purchaser, and take money of city property. Mr. HUMP, on the land, will show it. Full possession given first January next. Address

W. S. PILCHER, Attorney at Law,
Louisville, Ky.

P. S. I am authorized to sell on liberal terms 4½ acres of land in Fisherville, on which is a dwelling house, storehouse, other necessary buildings for a family; a large corn mill and distillery house, 3 stories high, 60 feet long by 30 feet wide, pens for 400 hogs, and a corn-crib nearly of the same size as the distillery building. It has a steam engine, and all distillery machinery complete. It would make a tavern-house, an Academy, or Bagging and Rope Factory, or Carding Machine, either of which would be profitable there. au6 d1m

"NO NORTH, NO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST UNDER THE CONSTITUTION; BUT A SACRED MAINTENANCE OF THE COMMON BOND AND TRUE DEVOTION TO THE COMMON BROTHERHOOD."—Franklin Pierce.

WEDNESDAY, : SEPTEMBER 8, 1852.

☞ The editor of the Journal is certainly signalizing himself by a recklessness of assertion not often met with in the most reckless of partizan sheets. In his paper of yesterday morning, he says:

John Van Buren, in his Hillsborough speech, declared that "they (the democrats) detested slavery and will not uphold any law to preserve that institution." Yes, he said this in General Pierce's own State, at a meeting of General Pierce's own democratic friends and neighbors, and on the very day after a long talk with Gen. Pierce himself. It was a declaration that the democracy will not uphold the fugitive slave law of any law to sustain slavery. And, if the democracy will not sustain any law to uphold slavery, then slavery, if the democracy be in power, must be abolished. John Van Buren's declaration is as strong as could be uttered. Let no democrats undertake to say that his speech at Hillsborough has been perverted—we take it as reported in the democratic organs themselves.

Now here is a report of Van Buren's remarks in his Hillsborough speech, published in the Boston Times:

John Van Buren, of New York, was next introduced, and referred to his opening remarks to the platforms of the two parties, and gave a slight historical sketch connected with the compromise. He believed it true that the Constitution secured the right to recover runaway slaves, and we must all live up to it, or the Constitution was at an end; if it was a duty to live up to it, that duty should be performed in a constitutional manner. If Washington and Jay and such men made a bargain, he should believe it a fair one, though Abby Folsom and her crew should denounce it as the contrary.

Our readers will see that the comment of the Journal is a gross perversion of Van Buren's remarks. If the editor of the Journal has seen any report of Van Buren's speech which justifies his comments, it is forgery John Van Buren is as good a compromise man as the editor of the Journal, and far more consistent in supporting Pierce, than the editor of the Journal is in supporting Scott.

The whigs are busy publishing that Pierce deplored slavery—that the democracy of the North consider it a social and political evil, and wish it had no existence upon the face of the earth. This is to gull the unthinking amongst pro slavery men, and create a sort of political bugbear. If the editor of the Journal wanted to get votes for Pierce in his own party, he could not do better than satisfy them that Pierce is opposed to slavery. About two-thirds of the Journal's readers in this city deplore slavery; and a few years ago, such was their aversion to it, that they were ready to adopt a most extravagant and impracticable scheme of emancipation to get rid of it. Yet these same whigs profess to be the hottest sort of compromise men, and are as much opposed to aggression upon the southern institutions, as other people. Henry Clay deplored slavery, yet he was perhaps, a compromise man, fugitive slave law and all. The whig press, amongst the startling items, have a single sentence extracted from a speech which Pierce made in the Senate upon resolutions offered by J. C. Calhoun.—They print the sentence by itself in capitals, to make the simple stare, and whig editors South pretend to gaze at it with horror. The State rights papers South publish the whole speech, this awful sentence included, to prove that Pierce is just as sound on this slavery question as John C. Calhoun. The use made of such detached sentences, is a species of low demagoguery, designed to affect the ignorant and unreflecting; and will only recoil upon those engaged in the disreputable business.

The whigs have no such politician as Frank Pierce in the free States. He never catered to abolitionism, and wrote letters to win abolition votes, as Millard Fillmore did. He never made speeches, boasting that provisoism was his thunder, as Daniel Webster did. He is well known to the freesoilers of his region as their uncompromising opponent in all their mischievous schemes of agitation. But neither he nor any other democrat or whig either in the free States, oppose abolitionism or freesoilism, because he is in favor of slavery, and wishes to perpetuate its existence. The politicians of the free States who support the rights of the southern States, uniformly repudiate the charge, as they consider it, that they approve of slavery; and indeed their disapprobation of it needs no affirmation. The free States have all recorded their proscription of slavery in their State constitutions; and their people need not tell us that they consider slavery an evil. The South don't demand of the North to approve of slavery. If they did, they would be just as absurd as the abolitionists. The North are free to entertain what opinions they please about slavery, and we dont know of any man South who is blockhead enough to question the exercise of that right, except whig editors and whig scribblers just now. They have become very fastidious of late. They would prescribe personal opinions about slavery, and at the same time they are fierce for the election of a man who says it is a high moral obligation of the master to ameliorate slavery, even to extermination. Who does not see in view of this fact, the detestable hypocrisy and demagoguery of the clamor whigs have raised over the expressions of disapprobation of slavery ascribed to Pierce.

No wonder, however, that the whigs wish to drown the true issue on the slavery question.—It is not who approves or deplores slavery and considers it a blessing or an evil; but who will stand by the Constitution and the compromises in it, which our fathers made, in letter and spirit? There were differences of opinion about slavery in the convention that made the Federal Constitution, but that did not prevent the adoption of that instrument.

Some men North have got too holy to live with the South in peace, too holy to perform constitutional obligations. A powerful organization North, headed by Seward, Greeley, Weed, Johnston, Stevens & Co., have a higher law than the Constitution.

The Constitution requires the surrender of fugitive slaves; but these men can't afford to comply with this requisition. General Scott is their favorite for the presidency. They intend to sustain themselves by sustaining him. They have labored for it, struggled for it, and have forced up the southern whigs to aid them.

To this whole class of politicians North, Frank Pierce stands diametrically opposed.—He has always stood so, and since the late meeting at Hillsborough is brought into question, and a gross misrepresentation of it is attempted to be palmed off upon the South, we subjoin the testimony of a southern whig who was there:

Revere House, Aug. 21, 1852.

Messrs. Editors: I perceive that in enumerating in your paper this morning, the names of the strangers who were upon the platform last night at Faneuil Hall, I am described as Judge Lyons, of Virginia. I deem it proper at once to say, therefore, lest it should be thought that I am conniving at an innocent mistake which gives me a title that I have no right to, that I am not a judge, but simply a member of the bar. I was honored with a seat upon the platform, as a mere spectator, by the kindness of the president and committee of the Granite Club; and I take leave to say that I was a very highly gratified spectator, and only regret that every man in the South could not see and hear all that I saw and heard in Faneuil Hall last night, and at the great meeting at Hillsborough; for they would then feel, I am sure, as I now do, that the democratic party of New England is as sound upon the compromise question, and the constitutional rights of the South, as the South itself; and that the Union is safe in its keeping. My friend, Mr. Reid, who was with me, desires me to disclaim also for him, the title ascribed to him, as he is, like myself, a member of the bar.

Your obedient servant,

JAMES LYONS.

Such was the impression made by the speeches at Hillsborough, upon those who were present and heard them: and now we submit to whigs to determine how much confidence is to be placed in the comments of the Journal.

☞ The editor of the Journal starts out in a leader yesterday, thus: Attention the South—Gen. Pierce's opinions—Downright Abolitionism. The pith of the whole article is contained in the following:

In October, 1850, Gen. Pierce was a member of a Democratic convention in New Hampshire, which adopted the following resolution by a unanimous vote—be of course being one of the master-spirits of that body:

Resolved, That the holding of human beings in bondage is a curse to any country; that we are opposed to slavery, black or white, in all its forms and under whatever circumstances.

Now it happens that Gen. Pierce was not a member of a democratic convention in New Hampshire in 1850 at all. The statement is a downright falsehood. In plain words, it is a lie. The editor of the Journal had the misfortune to publish a forgery the other day, and here he has fallen into a snare again, by trusting some mendacious whig sheet. He ought to have learned by this time not to trust any thing he sees in a Scott paper. He has wasted a good deal of paper and ink on this resolution that he might have saved, much to his credit.

The Journal probably got this falsehood from the Republic. That paper has signalized itself by an utter disregard of truth ever since the canvass commenced.

The resolution amounts to nothing, however. It's only what half the readers of the Journal in this city believe.

☞ A soulless apathy benumbs the democratic party, says the editor of the Journal Let him comfort himself with those words.

☞ The cost of the London police is over one million and a half of dollars.

WHO IS FRANKLIN PIERCE!

We think the following affords a succinct and satisfactory answer to the above question, which ignorant men among the whigs sometimes amuse themselves by asking:

A BRIEF OUTLINE
OF THE LIFE OF
A PATRIOT AND STATESMAN.

FRANKLIN PIERCE,
THE SON OF A REVOLUTIONARY SIRE,
Who fought at
BUNKER HILL,
And throughout the war that tried men's souls;
Was born at Hillsborough, N. H.,
NOVEMBER 23, 1804;
Graduated with distinction at Bowdoin College, 1824; admitted to the bar in 1827, taking a high position in his profession, and securing an extensive practice.
IN 1829,
ELECTED TO THE LEGISLATURE,
Serving with distinction, and such satisfaction to his constituents, that he was re-elected for
THE THREE SUCCESSIVE TERMS,
IN 1832,
ELECTED SPEAKER
By UNANIMOUS Vote of the Democrats of the House of Representatives of NEW HAMPSHIRE.
IN 1833,
ELECTED TO CONGRESS.
IN 1835,
RE-ELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
So distinguishing himself by his eloquence and services, that he was,
IN 1837,
ELECTED TO THE U. S. SENATE.
He served in that body, with honor to himself and credit to his State, for five years, and,
IN 1842,
RESIGNED THAT HIGH OFFICE,
And retired to private life and the practice of his profession. His services in the Senate, however, were so highly appreciated that, on the resignation of Levi Woodbury,
IN 1843,
he was offered the nomination of
GOVERNOR OF N. HAMPSHIRE,
Which he declined, and was,
In the same year,
Appointed
UNITED STATES DISTRICT ATTORNEY
For New Hampshire,
IN 1845,
HE WAS APPOINTED AGAIN
UNITED STATES SENATOR,
By the Governor of New Hampshire, but declined the honor.
IN 1846,
He was tendered the appointment of
U. S. ATTORNEY GENERAL,
BY PRESIDENT POLK,
The honors and emoluments of which high office he however refused, reiterating his determination not to leave the pursuits of private life except
At the Call of his Country in time of War!!
IN 1847,
On the breaking out of the war with Mexico, he immediately
VOLUNTEERED AS A COMMON SOLDIER,
And drilled in the ranks as such.
In the same year,
He was APPOINTED BRIGADIER-GENERAL
BY PRESIDENT POLK.
In the same year,
He Fought Gallantly at the Battles of
CONTRERAS,
CHERUBUSCO,
MOLINO DEL REY, and
GARITA DE BELEN;
Receiving the plaudits of Gens. Scott, Worth, and Pillow, as well as of all his brother officers and soldiers, for his conduct and bravery; and on the capture of the City of Mexico, and the virtual
CLOSE OF THE WAR,
RESIGNED HIS COMMISSION,
And returned to his home and practice of his profession, in which he has continued, loved, honored, and respected by all who knew him, until 1852,
When he was unanimously nominated by the National Democratic Convention at Baltimore for PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES.
He has richly deserved all these high honors, conferred on him by his fellow-citizens, by distinguished services to his State and the Country at large.
The exalted purity of his private and public character; His clear and discriminating judgment; His manly and unfaltering consistency in the advocacy and defence of his political principles; His warm hearted generosity and amenity of disposition; His ardent and active efforts in behalf of the Great Principles of the Democratic Party,
Aided by an eloquence, at once attractive, convincing and effectual, have all conspired to make him unanimously recognized
AT HOME AS
NEW HAMPSHIRE'S FAVORITE SON:
While they have also so strongly appealed to the confidence and regard of his fellow countrymen throughout the Union, that
IN 1853,
He will, on the 4th of March, be inaugurated at Washington as the
CHIEF MAGISTRATE OF THE REPUBLIC

☞ We advise the Scottites to keep files of the Louisville Journal and other Scott papers. They will be the only evidence that General Scott was ever a candidate for the office of President. The vote in the electoral college is not likely to leave any traces of the fact.

☞ We have no disposition to exult over the calamities of the whig party. We did'nt intend to best them half as bad as the signs now indicate. Come whigs, whip up, and do a little better. We suggest to whig editors whether they had'nt better quit lying. They have depended on that means of success almost entirely hitherto, and their prospects grow worse daily. Would'nt it be better to change the practice a little?

☞ The net amount subject to draft in the United States Treasury on the 23d ult., was $17,705,183 22.

Nothing illustrates better, the adaptation of the present tariff to the purposes of the revenue, than the fact that even a Galphin administration cannot exhaust the treasury.

Nicaragua.—The following is an extract of a letter from Juan del Norte, dated Aug. 16, 1852:

"The rejection, by the State of Nicaragua of the late treaty made by Mr. Webster and the English Minister, at Washington, has left the affairs of this place in a very unsettled state. You are aware, I presume, that this city is under a species of quasi independent government, composed of a council—three judges, mayor and police—most of whom are Americans. This government was instituted in March last. Previous to that time San Juan was under a kind of oligarchy. The head and front was the British Consul-General, assisted by the Vice-Consul and a City Council elected by the people, but usually at the suggestion of the Consul General. This gentleman and the Vice-Consul were ex-office members of the board. The government thus constituted became odious to the people. It was nominally under the Mosquito King, but actually a British Province.

"It will be extremely difficult to release the grasp which England has upon the entire coast of Central America, washed by the Caribean sea. As to San Juan, she is fully aware of its importance as connected with the contemplated Atlantic and Pacific Ship Canal, and nothing but a very determined course on the part of the United States Government will ever induce her to abandon her pretensions here."

MAISON D'OR, 513 MAIN STREET.

HAVING now completed the necessary preparations for re-organizing "MAISON D'OR," I invite the former customers of the establishment to an inspection of the splendid stock of goods which is now in store, and more particularly do I desire the ladies who have visited the Eastern cities, to make comparison of goods which they may have seen or bought in New York, as the style, quality, purity, or price, should the setting not result to my advantage, I do not ask or expect to make a sale.

During the period of 16 years that I have bought the goods for the above establishment, whilst I have exerted my best energies and skill in the selection of goods, I have never knowingly permitted deception to be used in the sale of them. It is heedless to add that I am now far advanced in life to change the habit which has been a source of pride, if not of profit to me.

I have elevated the style and qualities of my goods far beyond those of any former period, and to enable me to do this, I made special orders in the spring for some rich and fashionable goods which could not otherwise be had.

You will not be disappointed in examining the stock of Rich Silks, Embroideries, Laces, Evening and Dinner Dress Materials, Bridal Goods, with the best of every description of Mourning Goods, and Goods for children's wear, together with a large and superior Stock of Hosiery and Gloves; also, some very splendid Embroidered Lace and Muslin Curtains, the ne plus ultra of the season. A SURE REMEDY FOR CHILL AND FEVER

Dr. Urban's
VEGETABLE FEVER AND AGUE POWDERS!

THE only sure remedy known. It cures, when taken according to directions, in twenty minutes, leaving no fever after the chill, very seldom requiring more than one dose to make a permanent cure. A great number of cases of from 2 to 5 years standing, have been cured with the first dose, and the chill has never, as yet, returned. The beauty of this medicine is, that it stops the chill in TWENTY MINUTES, or less; and the patient will be entirely clear from fever after the chill, which is not the case when any other medicine is used. It has superseded all other preparations wherever it has been introduced.

It can be had at the Manufacturer's Depot, on Third street, between Main and Market, wholesale or retail, by URBAN & HARNEY.

Also, at J. B. Wilder & Co.'s, J. R. Brittson's, and John Gamble's, Louisville, Ky.; L. Sayre, at Gallagher & Ernst's, Cincinnati, Ohio, Griesbeck & Co., Houston, Texas; Scribner & Devol, New Albany, Ia.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN
At No. 463 Market Street.

As Bliss's stock has come to hand,
The prettiest suit in all the land,
Tis' fine, 'tis nice, its very neat,
Therefore call in on Market street,
And take a look, 'tis worth the sight
To see how things are done up right,
And Bliss he is polite indeed,
Will show you what you chance to need.
His Scott Hats are so very neat,
And shine so bright upon the street,
They're selling fast, come one and all,
The price of them will never fall.
The Pierce Hat too have quite a run,
They look so slick, indeed 'tis fun
To see the Whigs and Democrats
Call in and buy the best of Hats;
His neighbors they look very grum,
Can't tell why they don't get the run,
The cause to Bliss is very pat,
They cannot make the fine mole Hat;
His fine Cloth Caps have just got here,
Call in and look, you need not fear;
The Styles are neat and look so well,
Made of the best material;
The Plush Caps they are got up brown,
The best that in New York are found;
His Otters too can't be beat,
By any Hatter on Main street,
To wind this up come one and all,
Be sure that you on Bliss do call,
You'll ne'er regret a purchase here,
As he will deal with you so fair. se7

River News.

☞ A beautiful light draught boat has just been completed at New Albany called the Piota. She is intended for the Red river trade, and will be commanded by Capt. Parker, under whose superintendence she was built. Although not so large as our first-class steamers, yet she combines every improvement in steamboat architecture, and is, throughout, a perfect specimen of boat building.

The hull was built by Tillon & Alford, of New Albany. The following are her dimensions: 180 feet on deck, 33 feet beam, 6 feet hold, engines by P. Tillon & Co., cylinders 7 feet stroke, 2 boilers, 21 feet long and 42 inches in diameter, with small engines for hoisting freight, &c.; cabin by Thompson & Bester, painting by Scarrier, upholstery by H. Williams; furniture by J. H. Monohon & W. L. Sanderson, her carpets, curtains, linens, oil-cloths, &c., are of the best quality, and were furnished exclusively by the extensive furnishing house of Hite & Small, of the city.

The Piota leaves Portland for the sunny south this evening, at 4 o'clock, in charge of Capt. S. F. Miller, a thorough boatman, and those who put themselves under his charge will have their wants well catered for, besides being sure to go through without detention, as she is very light draught.

☞ The Golden State, of which the Pittsburg papers have been boasting for several weeks, made her first appearance at our wharf yesterday. She has a graceful model, and will probably make good time. Her dimensions are as follows: 172 feet long, 27 feet beam, and 6½ feet hold. The Golden State was built at McKeesport, Pa., and is intended to run in the Pittsburg and St. Louis trade. She is commanded by Capt. Calhoun.

☞ The Winchester, or the "Northern Actress," or Coll Martin calls her, did not get down yesterday. She will be here this morning, ready to make a dash in the Cincinnati morning line. She is a new boat, about 200 feet in length, and looks as though she would run a pretty good lick.

☞ That trim looking boat, the G. W. Sparhawk, with the veteran McLellon on deck, is the mail boat for Cincinnati this morning. Messrs. Smith and Taylor, both polite and agreeable gentlemen, will be found at the desk.

☞ It will be seen from our despatches that the steamer Fawnee is sunk. She struck a snag at Corn Island, below Memphis, and sunk in six feet water. The boat will be raised. Her cargo, which consisted of dry goods, will be saved in a damaged condition.

☞ The James Jackson, an excellent low water craft, in charge of Capt. Warton, starts for Florence and Tuscumbia this afternoon. I. S. Morehead is the agent.

☞ The timber for the low pressure boat has been got out, and she will be rushed forward as soon as the "Louisville" is launched.

☞ The Cincinnati Sun says that the ship carpenters have commenced planking the hull of the "Louisville."

☞ The Piota, a new steamboat, commanded by Capt. S. F. Miller, takes her departure for the south to-day.

☞ Those who design starting for St. Louis to-day should bear in mind that the Twin City starts for that city at 4 o'clock this evening.

☞ Capt. Wm. Fuller is to take command of the new Pike. She will be ready to start the latter part of next week.

☞ The Memphis, which sunk below Carrollton, has been raised and has gone to Cincinnati, where she will be repaired.

☞ Joseph Thornton, mail agent on the G. W. Sparhawk, has our thanks for river favors.

☞ The Fawn is doing a thriving business in the Henderson trade.

☞ Some seven or eight flat boats are loading with flour at the Madison wharf, for southern ports.

☞ The river was falling slowly last evening with five feet water in the canal.

☞ The Lady Pike left for Cincinnati yesterday and the Pashon for St. Louis, both with good trips.

☞ The bowidering of Main street, between Third and Fourth, progresses finely.

☞ Eight hundred musicians in New York are to serenade Madame Sontag, on her arrival.

☞ G. P. R. James, the novelist, is announced as being appointed Consul at Norfolk, Va.

☞ Barnum's museum and menagerie is on exhibition at Cleveland.

☞ Dan Rice, with his unrivalled Hippodrome, will be here in a few weeks.

☞ The most remarkable fact in the criminal statutes of England, is the greatly increased number of murders committed by females.

☞ Several Indians, descendants of eminent Western war-chiefs, are engaged as firemen and deck hands on the Ohio river steamboats.

☞ Louisville will be visited by the following distinguished artistes during the present year: Lola Montez, Alboni, Sontag, and Anne Thillon.

☞ Hon. Humphrey Marshall, accompanied by his family, passed through our city on Sunday, en route for New York, where he will embark for China.

☞ Gen. Sam. Houston will address a democratic meeting in Cincinnati this evening. He will be present at the great democratic meeting in this city on the 15th.

☞ The theatre in this city will not be opened until the first of December. It is now being repaired. The National, in Cincinnati, opens to-morrow night with a fine stock company.

FIREMEN.—Judge Warren, of one of the Cincinnati (Ohio) courts, has decided that five years' service (not necessarily in close connection) as a fireman, in any company or companies, fully exense the individual from serving as juror.

ARREST OF A THIEF.—A man named Nicholas Moss was arrested in Portland on Saturday charged with stealing a pistol and $13 in money from a man named Peter Palmajon. He was examined before Justices Price and Clement yesterday morning and committed in default of $500 bail.

☞ See the real estate advertisement of "Seventh street building lots," advertised for next Friday afternoon, by Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co., auctioneers. The lots are valuable, well located and are situated in a portion of the city rapidly increasing in value. Those who may wish to make a safe and profitable investment would do well to attend this sale.

BROOK ST. CHURCH.—This beautiful new edifice is decidedly, in its extended proportions, one of the handsomest churches in the Western country, an honor to the congregation who worship there, and an ornament to the Eastern portion of the city. It was dedicated on Sabbath last, by Rev. Bishop J. O. Andrew, who delivered as beautiful, chaste, and eloquent a sermon as we ever had the happiness of hearing. Subscriptions and contributions were taken up to assist in paying for the rebuilding of this beautiful temple, which, Phœnix like, has arisen from the flames more glorious than before. The contributions amounted to something over twenty-four hundred dollars, three gentlemen subscribing five hundred each.

LETTER FROM LEXINGTON.

[Correspondence of the Louisville Democrat.]

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 5, 1852.

Messrs Editors:—On Friday night last, Msj. C. J. Helm, and Jno. S. Jackson, Esq., addressed the democratic association of this city. There was a full house, and the speakers did ample justice to the glorious cause of democracy. Maj. Helm spoke of the conventions at Baltimore, and instituted a striking comparison between them; one met with the open and expressed determination of conciliation, and for the purpose of consulting for the good of the Union, each delegation resolving to offer up personal predilections and sectional interests upon the alter of our common country, having an eye to the advancement, prosperity, and perpetuation of this glorious Union. The other met in council for the purpose of securing individual ends, resolving rather upon a dismemberment of this confederacy then a relinquishment of their object. He then alluded to the many insults offered our flag during the last four years, and bitterly lamented that there was no Jackson, or Polk, to take the helm and resent the indignities. His speech was a fine one, and will tell.

I did not hear Mr. Jackson, but am informed it was a sound speech.

On Saturday night, after previous announcement by the town-crier, and hand bills in glaring capitals, that "H. C. Pindell, the gifted young orator of Fayette county," would answer Maj. Helm's speech, a few of our citizens assembled at the court house, to hear the talented cadet reply. A more egregious failure was never known; and now I ought in justice to Mr. Pindell to stop, for there was nothing in his speech which would make him known either as an orator or logician. He, too, attempted a comparison between the two conventions. He got on the platforms, and it was dreadful to see the straining, contortions, and constructions put upon the whig platform, to make it acceptable; but it was vain, the coon can't grin when the rooster crows.

The mightiest argument used by him, was the "cents worth of candy;" a topic always harped upon by "small fry politicians." I think if he had distributed a pound or two of candy among his audience, (the boys) they would have listened to him with a little more patience. There would have been more sucking and less mewing.

He said it was useless to comment upon the resolution in regard to the compromise, and the firmness of the party upon the slavery question; he said it was specific enough, and no one could find any fault with it. Pierce's only fault in his eyes, or the only one he dwelt on, was his modesty, and that retiring modesty, which is characteristic of the man. I repeat, his speech was a failure throughout. The cries for democratic speakers before and after the meeting, was more enthusiastic than any applause received by Mr. Pindell, at any time. Hisses and groans greeted the speaker more than once; and the wags of the city feeling such mortification at Mr. Pindell's failure, with the magnanimity which has ever been one of the leading characteristics of the whig party, have determined to wreak their vengeance upon some one, and for that purpose selected some ten or twelve boys as the objects whom they will prosecute before the court of justice for "disturbing the peace and harmony of the meeting." The "gilded jade winces," and to assuage, in some measure, their mortification, resolve upon the punishment (by a court of justice,) of some dozen boys. "O! most learned judges," and they are an upright honorable party! The night before, when Mr. Jackson was addressing the democratic association, a party of whigs, "filled with indignation," because of Mr. J's exposing, started an alarm of fire, knowing at the time there was no fire. Here is consistency.

The whigs have held their last meeting in this city, in my candid opinion. Scott enthusiasm is at a very low ebb. The "Scott Club" are making preparations for a trip up salt river. "A pleasant trip and safe passage."

Yours, &c. CORPORAL.

[For the Louisville Democrat.]

PORT ROYAL, HENRY CO., KY., September 2, 1852.

The grand New Castle Scott and Graham Barbecue—The Marshal of the day—The Committee of invitation—Col. Marshall—The Speakers—Mr. Harlan.

Messrs. Editors: Not knowing whether you had a correspondent on the ground or not, and presuming that you had not, from the fact that there were but very few persons from your city, I take it upon myself to give you as fair a description of what transpired as well as my memory and poor abilities will allow.

The day was beautiful, the air cool and pleasant, and the sun shining with all its splendor. At 10 o'clock, Mr. Richard Goode, one of the Marshals of the day, aided by a splendid band of music, and with a large red bandanna handkerchief "just about his loins," as the insignia of his office, proceeded in front of the court house and attempted to form a procession, preparatory to marching to the grounds designated for the barbecue. Col. Goode commanded, the band played, and forty or fifty boys and negroes rallied, wheeled into line, and off marched the Colonel with his juvenile band and colored subjects. The procession at length arrives upon the ground, the boys and colored "bredren" are dismissed, the music ascends the stand, followed by the Marshals of the day and committee of invitation. All of the distinguished whigs of the county of Henry and surrounding counties, were next invited to the stand. Col. Preston makes his appearance in the crowd—is invited to the stand—the band discourses a fine air to completion—Col. Preston is introduced to the audience, and launches forth in a speech from two and a half to three hours in length. First complimenting the presence of the ladies with a very complacent smile upon his somewhat handsome features. He next moves off smoothly to the democratic national convention, excuses himself before the ladies, and very modestly likens that distinguished body of citizens and their deliberations to a mighty battle royal cock-pit. Our respective aspirants being the cocks entered for the prize. The masterly manner in which he handled his figure, proved him to be perfectly acquainted with the organization of a cock pit. After lamenting the butchery of Cass, and the murder of (as he termed him) the federalist Buchanan, and praising the duck-legged Banta, (as he termed him) from Illinois, he introduced the Granite cock, which knocked them all into pie and bore the prize off triumphantly, and will, as I believe, knock the "Fuss and Feathers" cock clear out of the pit, and leave the said candidate as naked as nudity itself.

Mr. Preston made a large draw on Roman history, Plutarch's Lives, and the poetical writings of Burns and Byron. He then reverted to the civil services of Gen. Pierce, and said that they were no where to be found upon the record, which was contradicted in the evening, by Mr. T. F. Marshall, he not having been present when Col. Preston spoke, did this unconsciously, by stating that Gen. Pierce's votes were to be found upon the records of Congress. Col. Preston then reverted to Gen. Pierce's military career, and in the very face of Gen. Scott's report, denied that Pierce ever participated in any of the general battles of Mexico, and alluded very unbecomingly to Gen. Pierce's fainting, and then attempted to smooth it up with an apology. Upon the whole, Col. Preston's speech may be considered a very good literary production, and exceedingly ingenious in hiding from the audience, facts. He wants, indeed he is exceedingly anxious, to be the candidate for Congress, and we want him to be; we can beat any man that will make speeches for Scott.

Col. Marshall was very busy all day in getting ready to go to China; he had consequently to forego the pleasure of being on the ground. Mr. Harlan was on the ground and was loudly called for, three several times, but not a word did he say. I suppose he was studying about a trip to China, too. C. M. Mathews, Esq., a good whig, and one of the committee of invitation, if on the ground, was not seen by me; and if in the crowd at all, must have been in the outskirts studying about a mission to China. In the evening, and soon after dinner, Thos. F. Marshall made his appearance in the crowd for the first time during the day. He was loudly cheered and escorted upon the stand, when he launched forth in his speech, making many apologies for the state of his health, the feeble state of his lungs, and the laborious canvass he had been prosecuting in the 8th district, but hoped as he progressed, to warm up and speak louder. He evidently had been in bad health the night previous; but in accordance with his expectations, he grew warmer and louder; and speaking candidly, he was sometimes truly eloquent and sometimes truly ridiculous. His whole speech was cunning, deceptive, destitute of fact, and well polished off. It was interspersed with bursts of the very finest eloquence, and at times the most undignified witticism was indulged in. At about 4 o'clock in the evening his speech was ended, and the crowd dispersed in a peaceful genteel manner, good order having prevailed all day. There was no enthusiasm, there could none be gotten up. When the talented T. F. M fails, there is no use of any one else trying it. The fact is, it won't do, the people don't love Scott.

All want to know the number of people assembled; I heard it variously estimated during the day, by both whigs and democrats, at from two to three thousand. The cooks report ninety carcasses served up, which were not scantily eaten. There was plenty but not too much; and supposing that one carcass would feed (they were not generally large) about thirty men, the estimate would bring out about twenty seven hundred. So ends the Scott and Graham barbecue at which was to have been assembled ten thousand persons.

Yours, &c. G. E. G.

The Swiss Bell Ringers.

Mozart Hall was filled to overflowing on Monday night to greet the Swiss Bell Ringers, after an absence of some two or three years—A most fashionable audience was present, and manifested much delight with the entertainment. They had another fine audience last night, and the entertainment passed off with great eclat. This band has been so long together that each seems to have attained perfection in his part.

The greatest curiosity, and one which will always draw a crowded house, is the performance on wood and straw—a new instrument, but one which discourses "delicious music," when touched with the skilful hands of Mr. Pfafenschlager. Our space will not permit us to say more at present, but we advise everybody to go and see and hear for themselves.

Cholera.

We learn that this fearful disease is raging to an alarming extent in Owen and Grant counties, in this State. In the neighborhood of Stamher's Mills, Grant county, there were twelve deaths during the past week. The excitement is so intense that the residents of those counties are leaving for other parts. The number of deaths in various portions of the two counties is estimated at not less than one hundred and fifty in three weeks.

Beautiful Furnishing Goods.

Messrs. Taylor & Armstrong have already received a large portion of their fall and winter stock of furnishing goods. The recent purchases of this house seem to include every article needed in furnishing the wardrobe complete.—The very finest goods, rendered into apparel after the most approved style, may be found, in all their variety, in this line of trade, at this popular establishment.

TOBACCO.—The sales at the various warehouses in this city from the 1st of Nov. 1851, to July 7th, 1852, amounts to 20,476 hogsheads.

Prices continue firm, and the sales during the season will undoubtedly reach 22,000 hhds.—At the Farmer's Warehouse yesterday a lot of five hhds. were sold at $7 per hundred.

BAGGING AND ROPE.—A fair amount of business has been done in this department. The sales of the week amount to 1400 pieces, and 2000 coils at 12, 12¼ and 12½c for bagging, and 4¼, 4¾, 5¼ and 6c for rope. Sales of 500 coils L. M. C. rope at 6c., and 225 coils ton at 4½c.

☞ There will be a hickory pole raising at Schatzdein's, three miles from Louisville, on the Salt River plank road, on Saturday next, at 3 o'clock, P. M. Several good speakers will be present to address the crowd.

☞ Hillman, who has a lottery office two doors above the Democrat office, sold the second capital in yesterday's lottery—a prize of $1,022 75 being obtained for one dollar.

A DARING RUNAWAY.—A few weeks since, Mr. Core, a planter of Fayette county, was in one of his fields, some distance from his residence, when he perceived approaching him from the woods, a stout able bodied negro man. Mr. C. waited his approach, thinking he belonged to one of his neighbors, and had been sent on some errand. He came boldly up to Mr. C and accosted him thus:

"Your name is Mr. Core: I am a runaway and have long wished to have a conversation with you. I do not fear being apprehended—I am well armed—(exhibiting to Mr. C. a splendid brace of pistols and a bowie knife)—but I have long wanted to see you. In the first place, I wish to pay you, as your negroes have been feeding me for several months, and I have plenty of money—(pulling out of his pocket, as he spoke, a large roll of bank notes) and I assure you, I never murdered any man to get it. I got it by robbing houses in Memphis"—(naming many houses here and exhibiting to Mr. C. a large bunch of false keys)

Mr. C. doubting the propriety of attempting to arrest him, as he was alone, concluded he would question him about two runaways who had been gone some time, and he asked the negro if he knew them, and when he had seen them. The negro promptly replied that he did know them, and volunteered to assist Mr. C. in arresting them, and told him if he would meet him alone at the same place the next day, he would carry him where he could arrest both the negroes, as they had been very troublesome to him and he wanted to get rid of them.

Mr. C. promised to meet him at the place and time appointed, but instead of going alone, he took with him his overseer and another young man, and secreted them, armed with double barrelled guns, in vicinity of the place of meeting. At the appointed time, the runaway made his appearance but instead of finding Mr. C. alone, found the two gentlemen with their guns levelled upon him. He at once surrendered, and gave up his weapons, begging them not to tie him, as he wanted to be taken, and was tired of staying out, having been in the woods near five years; that he belonged to a gentleman in Alabama; and that he would still go with the man and show them the two negroes, as he had promised. They concluded to trust him, and all four proceeded in company to an old deserted cabin hard by.

Upon approaching the cabin, our hero informed his captors that the two negroes were in it—that there was but one door and no window—that if they would suffer him to approach the cabin first, as soon as he entered the door they might close up, and thus capture them, with his assistance. They agreed to this plan, and he proceeded cautiously towards the cabin, and as he entered the door, beckoned to them to rush up. They did so, but lo and behold! they perceived a back window, through which their prisoner had jumped, and mounting the overseer's horse, made good his escape, Memphis Eagle and Enquirer.

☞ Mrs. Partington, whilst looking over a newspaper this morning, read as follows: "A gentleman proposes through the columns of the Cincinnati Atlas to bet $500 that General Scott will carry Ohio; $500 that he will carry Pennsylvania, and $500 that he will carry New York."

"Heavens and earth!" exclaimed the old lady, just ready to go into spasms, what if he puts them all down on us. We'll be buried forever. Oh for the Lord's sake, Isaac, my dear son, do you know the danger we are in? Do put up your marbles dear, and run over and tell granny to come as quick as she can!" Isaac drops his toys and starts off on his errand; but to the surprise of the old lady, returns in a very short time.

"Ike," squealed the old woman, "why did'nt you go on?"

"Cos mother, I met a man and he told me that Mr. Scott couldn't carry them States, but would just take hold of the corners and shake them a little to frighten such as you so you'd vote for him. The man who wants to bet asked me to give him five cents to buy a gingercake; and said he had not eat anything for a week."

The old lady was pacified.—Southern Illinoisian.

GRAND MASS CONVENTION.

A Grand Convention of the Democracy will be held at the city of Lonisville, Ky., on the 15th day of September next, to consider the important political questions now before the people, and to take efficient measures to secure the success of their Baltimore nominations.

Distinguished speakers from all the States have been invited, and we have assurances many will be present to address the convention.

A splendid barbecue will be prepared for the free entertainment of the assembled thousands.

COME ONE! COME ALL!!

We trust that every Democrat of this State, and of our sister States, will take a personal interest in making this the largest assemblage ever held in the Mississippi valley.

SHARP ROGUERY.—On Wednesday noon a young man went into the store of Mr. Behme, on Fifth, near Race, and priced a pair of pantaloons. He selected a pair, and put his hand into his pocket as if to take out the money to pay for them: not producing any, he stated that if Mr. B. would accompany him to the Freeman's Hall, where he boarded, he would procure the money for him. To this Mr. B. consented, and putting the clothing on the counter, went to the back part of the shop to procure his hat.—While he was doing this, the rogue takes the pants, and puts out. On coming to the door Mr. B. could perceive no sign of him. He then went to the Hall, and on inquiry, found out that there was no such person there.

FREAKS OF A MAD BULL.—On Monday, a large bull, which was being driven through Third avenue in New York, broke loose from his driver, scattering the people on every side, and making a clear road before him. He made a dash at a barber's shop, and succeeded in breaking into it, when he was attacked by a man armed with an axe, who struck him a severe blow upon the head. This only infuriated him the more, and catching the man upon his horns he gored him in a shocking manner. He next attacked and killed a small boy in Fifth street, before he could be secured.—*N. Y. THE NEW YORK CRYSTAL PALACE.—The ground for this structure was broken in New York yesterday, and the building will be erected with all practicable speed. The plan adopted is a Greek cross, with a dome over the intersection. Each diameter of the cross is 365 feet long and 149 feet broad, and the dome is 130 feet high. There will be in this building 111,000 square feet of space on the ground floor, and 52,000 square feet in the galleries. It is estimated to cost $195 000. The building is entirely of iron and glass, and is already advertised to be open on the 21 of May, 1853. The plan was furnished by Messrs. Carstensen & Gildemeister.

REVOLTING CATASTROPHE.—At Norwich, Conn., last Thursday evening, six young ladies were, by the breaking through of the floor of a privy, precipitated into the vault, fifteen feet below, and the mother of two of them, attracted by their screams, fell in after them. A ladder was soon obtained, but proved to short.—Finally, all were, with great difficulty, extracted alive, but one is hardly expected to recover.

A CLERICAL STRIKE.—The clergymen of Connecticut are complaining of the salaries as altogether inadequate to the comfortable support of themselves and families. A pamphlet has been issued by the clergymen of the Episcopal church, setting forth the grievance. It states that the average salary of the clergy is not over $450.

☞ Mrs. Stowe, the authoress of Uncle Tom's Cabin, has engaged to write a popular tale on the effect of the Maine Liquor Law.

☞ Mr. Collins, the great steamship man, is spoken of as the democratic candidate for Mayor of New York.

As a carriage containing a party of Yorkers was crossing the suspension bridge across the Niagara, during the storm on Saturday last, and when about half way over, the bridge was struck by a gust with appalling fury. The wind blew a perfect tornado, while the air was densely filled with driving hail and rain, and so potent was the wind that the bridge swayed latterally to and fro, ten or twelve feet, making one giddy with its vibrations. So appalling was the commotion that the horses stopped and finally fell upon their sides on the bridge, while the driver, in the extremity of his terror, seemed incapable of making the least effort to move from the perilous spot. The inmates of the carriage could with difficulty keep their seats, and for a short time expected nothing else but to be precipitated into the surging waters below.

A PUZZLED PROFESSOR.—In a class in college, there was a member noted for his waggery. One day the professor of logic was endeavoring to substantiate that a thing remains the same, notwithstanding a substitution in some of its parts. Our wag, who had been exercising the Yankee art of whitling, at length held up his jack-knife, inquiring:

"Suppose I should lose the blade of my knife, and should get another inserted in its place—would it be the same knife as it was before?"

"To be sure," replied the Professor.

"Well then," the wag continued, "suppose I should then lose the handle and get another would it be the same still?"

"Of course," replied the professor.

"But if somebody should find the old blade and the old handle, and should put them together, what knife would that be?"

We never heard the Professor's answer.

Proclamation by the Governor.

IN the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, LAZARUS W. POWELL, Governor of said Commonwealth, to the Sheriffs of the counties of Carroll, Henry, Jefferson, Oldham, Shelby, and Trimble, Greeting:

WHEREAS, It has been made known to me that the Hon. Humphrey Marshall, has resigned his commission as a member of the House of Representatives of the 32nd Congress of the United States from the Seventh District of Kentucky.

Now therefore, In pursuance of the authority vested in me by law, I do hereby direct that an election be held in the aforesaid counties, composing the said Seventh Congressional District, at the several places of voting therein authorized by law, on SATURDAY, the 20th day of November 1852, for the election of a qualified person for representative in Congress to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the said Humphrey Marshall; and that you cause polls to be opened in your respective counties accordingly, and proceed with the same as directed by law, and make return according to law without delay to the Secretary of State.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed at Frankfort, this 20th day of August 1852, and in the 61st year of the Commonwealth.

Louisville High School.

The first session of this fast tution will commence on Monday, September 6th. The Concert Hall of the Louisville Musical Association, to which additions are now making for the purpose, has been secured for the use of the school, and will be fitted up with desks and other furniture, of the style which has been found most conducive to the health, comfort and progress of pupils.—There will be regular gymnastic exercises of the pupils, under the superintendence of Mr. Wilhelm Vogt, well known in this city for his superiority in that profession, free of charge to parents.

It is the intention of the teachers to make the course of instruction comprise a thorough and critical acquaintance with the Ancient and Modern Languages, the Mathematics and Natural Sciences, and all other branches of a liberal and comprehensive English education, and they hope, so far as possible, to promote the harmonious development of the mental, moral, and physical faculties of those entrusted to their care.

TO Physicians throughout the United States.

Having it unnecessary to remind any regular member of the medical profession of the reliable character of Holland Gin, in many diseases of a dyspeptic tendency, I respectfully invite your examination of a very superior article, manufactured by myself, at Schiedam, in Holland, and put up in quarter casks and pipes, in such a manner as must please. It is eminently distinguished from every other Gin in the market, by the superior flavor imparted to it by the use of the finest juniper berry with which it is flavored.

And in all a disorder of the digestive organs with which the masses now abound, physicians will find little difficulty in prescribing a good and pure Gin, which they can prescribe with confidence in its beneficial effects. As an importer of Holland Gin, I beg to submit to your attention my "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," as one which cannot fail to meet your most expectations, and I shall be happy to forward you a bottle of it, free of charge, to any address, and if not satisfying your readiness to accept it.

It is now exclusively in this country for medicinal purposes; yet, when that brief period, I have received numerous letters both from physicians and patients, testifying to its really extraordinary efficacy in Gravel, Inflammation of the Kidneys and Bladder generally, and I have no doubt that it would yield similar results, with precision and certainty, in your own professional experience.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Importer,

No. 72 Beaver st., New York.

au10 d&wlm J. B. WILDER & CO., Agents.

WOLFE'S Celebrated Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps. a medicinal diet drink of eminently salutary qualities, manufactured by the proprietor at his factory at Schiedam, in Holland.

It is made from the best variety that can be selected in Europe, and the essence of aromatic Italian berry, of acknowledged and extraordinary medicinal properties, and it has long since acquired a higher reputation, both in that portion of America, than by any other dietetic beverage.

In Grave, Gout, and Rheumatism; in Obstructions of the Bowels, and Kidneys, and Debility of the Urinary Functions, its effects are prompt, decided, and invariably reliable. And it is not only a remedy for these maladies, but, in all cases to which they are produced by drinking bad water, which is almost universally the cause of them. It operates as a sure preventive.

The refreshening effect upon the Stomach, Bowels, and Bladder of travelers, new re idents, and all persons unaccustomed to them, produced by the waters of nearly all our great inland rivers, like the Ohio, Mississippi, and Alabama, from the large quantity of decayed vegetable matter contained in them, in a state of solution, is well known; as it is also that of the waters of limestone regions, in producing Gravel, Calculi, and Stone in the Bladder. The Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is an absolute corrective of all these injurious properties of bad water, and consequently prevents the diseases which they occasion. It is also found to be a cure and preventive of Fever and Ague, a complaint caused by the conjoint efforts of vegetable miasma in the atmosphere and vegetable putrescences in the waters of those districts in which it principally prevails. The Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is consequently in great demand by persons traveling or about to settle in those parts of the country especially, as well as by many in every community, where it has become known, on account of its various other remedial properties.

In all cases of a tropical tendency, it is generally the only remedy required, when adopted in the early stages of the disease. In Dyspeptic maladies, when taken in proper quantities, as a diet drink, and especially at dinner, it is found, by uniform experience, to be eminently efficacious in the most obstinate cases, when even the best of the usual remedies have failed to afford more than mere temporary relief. In cases of Flatulency, it is immediate and invariable specific, and it may be administered in diluted and proportionate quantities, even to young infants, in all these paroxysms of griping pain in the stomach and bowels, to which they are especially subject, as well as in the colic of grown persons. Its judicious adoption in connection with the principal meals, or when a sense of exhaustion dictates its use, never fails to relieve the debility attendant upon protracted Carnal maladies, Low Temperaments, and Exhausted Vital Energy, by whatever cause induced.—These are facts to which many of the most eminent medical men, both in Europe and the United States, have borne testimony, and which are corroborated by their highest written authorities.

The Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is put up in good strong bottles, neatly covered and labeled, accompanied by an essay upon its properties and uses.

Sold at the Depot, 339 West street, and by the principal druggists in this city and the United States.

COUNTRY SEAT FOR SALE.

A desirable country seat is now offered for sale in the suburbs of this city. It is situated on the Shelbyville Turnpike, about four miles from the Galt House, and only two miles from the Beargrass Bridge. A road has also been surveyed and subscription made to open and grade the same from Market street continued, or from Jefferson street until the Market street Bridge is built; this road will run with the back line of the place to Gilman's Point, thus giving two avenues to the City. The place contains 50 acres of ground, in a high state of cultivation, having been heavily manured during the past 5 years for gardening purposes.

The improvements consist of a 1 story Brick Cottage, with 4 rooms and a passage on the first floor, and 2 rooms above. Also a brick kitchen with servants room, detached from the house; also a frame Summer kitchen and coal house, stable, sheds, out-houses and cistern, together with a never failing spring of the very best water.

There is also a Gardener's house, with 3 rooms, and a summer kitchen, cistern, cellar, and out houses, all finished complete, and all in excellent order. The place has 240 fine selected peach trees, 75 apple trees, 50 quince, 100 cherry, about 50 plums and pears, about 300 currant, and 500 raspberry bushes, 450 grape vines, 2 of an acre of strawberries, an asparagus bed, and some 150 ornamental trees, vines and shrubs, nearly all of which, with an osage orange hedge around a wood lot pasture, were set out in the spring of 1850, and are in good healthy growing condition. This place is susceptible of being divided into two parts, the acres with the main house and improvements, and lot acres with the Gardener's house, could be let out separate, if desired by the purchasers.

The terms will be made easy. For further information apply to the subscriber at his store, No. 631 Main street.

IMPORTANT TO THE DEAF.

DR. SMITH, Aurist, of New York, begs to inform those of his patients in the vicinity of Louisville, with whom he has been in communication, that he has, in compliance with their special request, made arrangements to spend a few days in this city, and may be consulted at his temporary residence, Ormsby House, Main street, from 9 till 6 daily, until the 27th of July inst.

DEAFNESS, NOISE IN THE HEAD, and all DISAGREEABLE DISCHARGES IN THE EAR, speedily and permanently removed without causing the least pain or inconvenience.

Close and undivided attention to this branch of special practice has enabled him to reduce his treatment to such a degree of success as to find the most confirmed and obstinate cases yield by a steady attention to the means prescribed.

The following recommendations are confidently submitted:

AUGUSTA, March 2, 1852.

I have met Dr. Smith frequently in practice, and have formed a very favorable opinion of his skill and ability as a Physician, especially as an Aurist.

W. T. TRIMLET, M. D.,

Prof. of Surgery, &c.

Dr. Smith's conduct is professional and gentlemanly; his success as an Aurist unprecedented.

D. J. McCOCKWOOD,

Professor of Surgery, &c.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3, 1852.—This is to certify that I called on Dr. Smith, and after submitting to his treatment, have found a permanent relief from a partial deafness of some years' standing.

PHILIP A. WHITE,

Chemist and Druggist.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 16, 1852.—This is to certify that I was relieved of deafness of over 30 years standing by a short attendance upon Dr. Smith, Aurist, and I cheerfully take this method to recommend all those in want to my friends and the public generally, as easy of application, and efficacious for cure.

ap15 C. W. BLISS.

N. B. The question of intervention is abroad in the land, and thousands of our fellow-citizens, the current of whose minds has never before been directed in that channel, are interchanging thoughts upon the subject, which I have no doubt will ultimately result to the benefit of the American Nation. Progression being an integral part of the construction of the human mind, its course is on—ever true Nature and Nature's God, therefore, throw off the shackles that would fetter its march, and let it attack, it thus it wills, those iron despots o'er the sea. Inspired by the philosophy of progression, our venerated forefathers in the sixteenth century sought an asylum in the wilds of the American Continent, and spread broadcast those great principles of civil and religious liberty that are now upheaving as a mighty ocean the masses throughout the vast continent of Europe which erelong will engulph the Kings of the Earth in utter extinction, and the American Eagle soaring aloft in the pride of glory, will exultingly proclaim liberty! liberty! unbounded liberty throughout the world! Whilst a universal excitement pervades all Christendom, and strange developments are being made in the Arts and Sciences, C. W. BLISS, foremost in the current of Progression, is contributing his mite in the manufacture of those fine and elegant French Moleskin Hats, which are noted for their transcendent beauty wherever they are known.

FLUID EXTRACTS! FLUID EXTRACTS!

WE are now preparing and keep constantly on hand the Fluid Extract of Cubebs, Rhubarb, Sarsaparilla, Senna, Burdock, Valerian, Pinkroot, and Senna Rhatany and Pareira Brava. These Extracts are prepared in the most careful manner, and are not injured by heat (as is most frequently the case); they combine all the active principles of the substances from which they are obtained, and are so pleasant that children will take them without difficulty; the dose is much smaller than can be given in any other manner. We invite the attention of practicing physicians to these Extracts, as they often experience great difficulty in getting their patients to take large nauseous luses of Senna, Pinkroot, Cubebs, &c.

Our EXTRACT OF RHATANY is one of the best astringents that can be obtained, and from its mild and pleasant action is peculiarly adapted to the Summer Complaints and Diarrhea of children. It can be used alone, or in combination with other remedies.

Our Extract of Sarsaparilla is made from the GENUINE Honduras Sarsaparilla, we can confidently recommend it to Physicians, as it is made from the formula of the United States Pharmacopœa, and is of uniform strength.

I WILL commence distributing Ice throughout the city during the season, on the first of May. Those who wish to serve me with their patronage will please send their orders to No. 3 Bullitt street, or hand them to the drivers of the wagons. It is not necessary to say anything about the quality: It is generally known if there is any good who saves it. Ice can be had at all hours, in quantities to suit purchasers, day or night, at the Ice Depot, No. 3 Bullitt street.

TROTTING AND RACING.

JAMES L. EOFF has taken the Oakland Race Course, and is making preparations for a week's Trotting and Racing, to come off in October next. The same stables that were present at the last meeting, with the addition of several others, will be up in the ground, and in readiness to contend for the various liberal purses which will be offered.

Due notice will be given of the meeting, and a Programme of the Races and Purses will be published in due time. jy30 dtf

LOUISVILLE, KY.,

Machinist and Manufacturer of SMALL STEAM ENGINES,

SUITABLE for pumping, printing, milling, or grinding; in short, for all purposes where three or four-horse power is needed. Owing to the simplicity of construction, this pattern of Engine can be afforded at prices greatly below the usual rates. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

The subscriber is also manufacturing an improved Mortising Machine, and Plate-bending Apparatus for tin and sheet iron workers, and attends to all kinds of jobbing in his line of business. jy24 dtf

J. N. BREEDEN & CO.,

Steam Planing Mill and Builders' Warerooms,

Lumber Yard, Sash, Door, and Blind Factory, Flooring Mill, Dry Goods, Starch, and Soap Boxes,

North side of Main, between First and Brook streets,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

THE undersigned, builders and practical mechanics of the city of Louisville, have examined the work manufactured in the extensive Planeing Mill of Messrs. J. N. Breedeu & Co., of this city, and with much pleasure bear testimony to the excellence of the materials used, and the work done by them. Their builders' werehouse contains a very large assortment of Doors, Window Sash, and Venetian Shutters, which we have carefully examined, and do not hesitate to say that they will bear favorable comparison with any work of the kind that we have ever seen. The perfect machinery used by these gentlemen will make as good work as any done by hand.
